—Go to Mrs. Bennett's for pure ice cream.
—Hindoo and Nip Cigars at F. S. Wells', Forest City.
—Miss Mary Peter is visiting with friends in St. Joseph.
—The Circuit Court docket will be found on our inside pages.
—A. C. Ware and wife were visiting friends in Maitland last week.
—T. C. Dungan has one thousand dollars to loan. Call and see him.
—Ed. Rhodes has just finished a fine cyclone residence for Lora Baker.
—Mrs. G. W. Cummins has returned from her extended visit with friends in Ohio.
—Go to Mrs. D. E. Bennett's beautiful park and partake of her pure cream ice cream.
—Remember that F. S. Wells, the cheap grocer, at Forest City, sells sugars way down.
—Mrs. Soerle has a large crop of grapes, and desires to sell them as soon as possible.
—Remember Joe's Place, 110 North Second street, St. Joseph, while attending the fair.
—Mrs. D. E. Bennett will be prepared to accommodate a few boarders during Circuit Court.
—Parties desiring to purchase grapes can be supplied by the pound, crate or bushel by Mrs. Soerle.
—When in Forest City do not fail to call at the cheap cash grocery house of F. S. Wells, for bargains.
—There is nothing good for children during this hot weather as King & Proulx's Blackberry Cordial.
—Little Cora Fry accompanied her father to the Croton re-union. She will come home crowned with laurels.
—Boys, remember that when in St. Joe attending the fair, that the place to go is Joe Oppenheimer's, 110 North Second Street.
—The choicest line of canned goods to be found in Holt county, can be seen at the cash grocery house of F. S. Wells, Forest City.
—Mary and Eva Kuecher started Wednesday to Grand Island. The former on a short visit and the latter to remain there.
—We acknowledge a very pleasant call from Prof. Carpenter, of the Drake University, Iowa. We found him a very pleasant gentleman indeed.
—All members of the Woman's Union are earnestly requested to be present at the next meeting, as business of vital importance will be before the Union.
—At the Horticultural meeting last Saturday, Mr. W. R. Langhin exhibited a new variety of plums, perfectly hardy, which were beauties and delicious.
—Itch and scratches of every kind cured in thirty minutes by Woolford's Sanitary Lotion. Use no other. This never fails. Sold by Hinde & Philbrick, druggists, Oregon, Mo.
—Jno. S. Gibson left at our office one day last week, a fine muskumelon, of the banana variety. It is without doubt the richest and most fragrant melon we have tasted in this country.
—The following ex-soldiers were hunting "Joe's Mule" at Creston, Iowa, this week: A. C. Ware, Dr. Gosum, Henry Moller, Herman Watson, Tom Fry, Geo. Fryman and Peter Sepp.
—While in attendance at the fair in St. Joe, remember that Joe Oppenheimer, 110 North Second Street, is the place to go for a good bed, cigars, choice liquors, or a quiet game of pool.
—Married, at the Presbyterian parsonage in Oregon, August 11th, 1886, Mr. Samuel A. West and Miss Ida L. Boswell, both of Holt county. Rev. T. D. Roberts officiating, assisted by Rev. A. A. Mathis.
—On account of waiting for the result of the Republican nominating convention, we are one day behind this week, but thinking our readers would be more interested in that than anything else, we held off.
—The officers of the Maitland Fair Association have offered a premium of $25 for the best band. The Stevensville and St. Joseph bands will be barred. We hope all the bands of Atchison, Andrew, Holt and Nowaday counties will enter.
—The Maitland Fair Association have settled with the railroad company for the destruction of the fencing and stalls by fire, which occurred several months ago, the settlement being made entirely satisfactory to all parties. The Association began rebuilding Tuesday, and all things point to the best fair ever held by the Association.
—The Literary Entertainment given by the Ladies' Christian Temperance Union at Fairview church, on Saturday night was a grand success. The church was filled to overflowing. Notwithstanding the length of programme, the audience showed their interest and respect by the attentive manner with which they listened. The essays and rhetorical exercises were good. All praise is due the young sisters of the cause; several of them being in attendance at the Institute. The New Point Band furnished the instrumental music, to the delight of all. They deserve praise for the gallant manner which they acquitted themselves. The Fairview W. C. T. U. will not forget the boys.

—The best racing.
—More attractions.
—More cash premiums.
—And the best and largest exhibits.

—Full line of Coffee, Teas, Minnesota, Colorado and Kunkel flour can be had at lowest possible cash prices at F. S. Wells', Forest City.
—The Ruby-Lafayette Combination is one of the best Dramatic Companies that ever appeared before an Oregon audience. Go and hear them to-night.
—Joe's Place, 110 North Second street, St. Joseph, is the place to go for a good lunch. Open day and night. Give him a call if you want to be treated square.
—Miss Lucy Peters celebrated her tenth birthday on last Saturday, by entertaining a host of her young friends. The little ones had a most delightful time.
—We extend congratulations to Rev. Christy and wife—a bright little boy was given them last Monday night. May he live long and be always as pure as his ma and pa.
—Be sure to give Joe Oppenheimer a call when in St. Joseph. He will furnish you a good bed, cigars, liquors, or anything you want to call for. Go and see him while attending the fair.
—Ye weary traveler, halt and rest, come into my tent, and feast thyself. I have the finest lunch counter to be found in this section of the State; you can get just what is needed to satisfy the inner man. F. S. Wells, Forest City.
—Parties having clover that they desire to have hulled, will please remember that J. F. Noell has a clover huller attachment to his threshing and will be ready to accommodate them as soon as he finishes his orders on wheat and oats.
—During July less than one-half of an inch of rain fell over the northern half of Missouri. Only in the extreme south and southwest was the fall sufficient for the demands of vegetation. The amount diminished gradually from 5.91 inches on the extreme southern border to nothing on the northern border.
—A. B. Payne has all kinds of meats to supply the people of Forest City and Oregon. His Forest City shop is always open, early and late, and he invites the people of that city and vicinity to call on him. His store at Oregon is always supplied with choicest meats and groceries. Call and see him at both places.
—Died, near Minersville, Kansas, on the 15th inst., of typhoid pneumonia, Katie, daughter of Wirt and Marcellus Kempton, aged about 10 years. Mr. Kempton was from Barnard, Mo., and Mrs. Kempton is a daughter of John H. Mollrider, formerly of the southern part of Hughes township, Nowaday county, Mo., where they still have many friends who will hear of their loss with regret.
—Your Sunday school lesson is upon the "Warning to Jesus and Peter." The scenes of this lesson follow close upon those of the last in that same upper room, and with that same little company, composed of Jesus and his disciples. The lowly service of feet-washing, composed of Jesus and his disciples, was not only of the heart of the disciples, but also of the scenes of Gethsemane and Calvary, so soon to be enacted. Judas, the professed friend of Jesus, was at the table there. His base ingratitude and awful crime were soon to be revealed. The deep and dreadful agony of Jesus' approaching death was clearly seen by him. His human heart was pained beyond expression that one of the chosen twelve, who had been lifted so high in privilege and honor, should turn against him in such treachery. No wonder that the dark shadow deepened around him; nor that he was "troubled in spirit." The consideration of these scenes is a most profitable one. Good surroundings do not insure our salvation—Judas. The preparation and progress of sin—Judas. Unworthy members shall not wreck the church—Judas. Blessed for the sincere when the insincere are gone out. The confidence of innocence. Love the badge of discipleship. Ambition and strife breed of sin.
